

A screenshot of the Yahoo! homepage. At the top is the navigation bar with links like Home, Mail, News, Sports, Finance, and more. Below the navigation bar are several widgets: a large weather widget for New York City showing 28°C and a sunny forecast; a map widget showing a route from New York to Los Angeles; a news widget with headlines about the economy and the environment; a sports widget with scores for various games; a finance widget with stock market updates; and a health widget with information about the flu. On the right side, there is a vertical banner for 'College search' and a 'Yahoo! Search' button.
